Military Credentialing Initiative

- Kansas invited by Lumina foundation to apply for funding to create new pathways for service members and veterans
- Focus on four occupational areas:
 - Supply Administration
 - Combined Personnel and Administration
 - Warehousing and Equipment Handling
 - Food Service
- Provides funding to create innovative pathways leading to stackable credentials which recognize military-based learning
- Focus on universities who are required to have two-year college partners
- Project funds extended through December 2021
 - Enhancements to military portal included
